4. Chairman's Report – Phil Foster

The MSA's Rally Championship Steering Group have requested dates for all stage rallies in the EMAMC area in 2019 (whether championship or not) by 17th July. This is to assess the number of events on particular weekends in preparation for tracking.

Training Officers: discussion of an email from Alan Page. There was no enthusiasm from the meeting for the proposed change. We run joint training with ANCC and ANEMMC. The member clubs are happy with what is currently done and happy that more training can be provided if required.

John Ryan (MSA Technical) is coming to the October meeting. He will take comments and queries on anything technical. If you want to give him prior notice of any queries, please pass them to the Secretary. EMAMC will send best wishes to Steve Perez after the fire he suffered on the Historic Ypres Rally.

Meeting restarted at 21:40

8.2 RLO Reports:

Rob Bateman (RLO Staffordshire and Peak District National Park)

No report

Nigel Evans (RLO Northamptonshire & Bedfordshire, Leicestershire & Rutland)

By email: "There has been a seasonal lull in the proposals to run anything much in Northants and Leicestershire. The Mercian Road Rally is still very much on, in a shortened form of about 130 miles and the same competitive mileage as last year, but with just one test to simplify things. No problems so far!"

Glyn Byard (RLO Notts and Derbyshire)

39 events from 25 clubs. 32 run so far.

8.3 RDO – Ian Smith:

By email: "The attached spread sheet contains details from the events at Speedmachine and MotoFest Coventry which were sent to clubs earlier on the 14th June, the details identified the clubs closest to the participants and have then contacted the participants directly to advise of their local club. The local clubs have now been contacted as per the below so they can reach these people if they wish and as you can see, they've been encouraged to feed back any impact they hear from these events.

I understand that the MSA have heard from a number of clubs already so we hope to see more members and participants across motor sport in the near future."

9. Other Officers Reports

10.1 Awards Officer – Dennis Turner

No report.

10.2 Marshals' Training Officer – Karen Spencer

No report.

10.3 Press Officer – Karen Spencer
